SMITH'S MANAGER IS HIGH SCHOOL WINS HOPEFUL OF RESULT

Receives Offer From French Outcome Is Surprise; Red Promoter to Meet Carpentier in Paris.

By W. W. NAUGHTON. By International News Service.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 21.—While Jim Buckley, manager of Gunboat Smith, is extremely confident that his henvyweight will defeat Arthur Pelkey at Daly City on New Year's day, his faith in the gunner is not causing him to make the mistake of counting chickens before they are Within the last day or two Buckley has relved a cablegram from a leading French promoter in which Gunboat is offered a match in Paris with either Georges Carpentler or Sam Langford.

'Did you accept?" Buckley was asked "Not yet," was the reply. "It will be time enough to do that when the Gon-boat-Pelkey battle has been fought. I do not suppose they would want Smith if Pelkey beat him."

May Fight Carpentier.

There's a touch of chivalry about Buckley's actions in the matter, but while he intends to be thoroughly sure of his ground for making receipt of the offer from Paris. he has practically decided what he will do in the event of Gunboat winning from Pelkey.

"If it had not been for Jack Johnson breaking his arm with the other Johnson, Gunboat would have looked for a match with Jack and no one else," and Buckley. "Smith has beaten Langford once and that should be enough especially in a case like this, when every tough opponent you dispose of means a step nearer the championship. With Jack Johnson out of it for several months, as he will be, if indeed he ever fights again, it is a horse of another color. We will be quite willing to meet either Langford or Carpentler and will lourney to Paris, if necessary, to make a match. We would prefer, though, to box in this country. Sam Lengford is barred in New York, but I will give Carpentler approached by the sum of the side for Gunboat to box.

Buckley Is Pleased.

Buckley is more than pleased at the Buckley is more than pleased at the sum of the Park team complained on every decision. No fines were attached.

Buckley Is Pleased.

Buckley is more than pleased at the way Gunboat's training is progressing over at Shannon's. He considers the gunner is lucky in having Jack Hemphili and Bill Sloan for sparring partners.

"I don't think Gunboat ever was as well fixed in that line before," said Buckley. "These fellows are krand workers and they keep Smith well extended all the time they are boxing with him. I am sure he will be in the shape of his life when he meets Pelkey on New Year's day."

Buckley referred to the fact that Pelkey is a much heavier man than Gunboat, but says that Smith has become accustomed to weight handleaps and thinks nothing now of conceding fifteen or twenty pounds to an opponent.

"We look for a stiff fight, but at the same time we expect to win," said Buckley. "We are glad that Pelkey has made so many stories about his speed, his pluck, his great strength and hard looks that I sometime think some of the boys are trying to scare the gunner. I saw where one writer said that all Pelkey needed was a cloak of wild animal skin, a rough whisker around his face and a war club in his hand to make him look like the original cave man. Why, Gaby Deelys would look like the rave man if you rigged her out that way."

FROM BOYD PARKS

and Black Team Shows Splendid Form.

The basketball quintette of the Salt Lake high school defeated the Boyd Park five of the Commercial league last night in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium by the score of 35 to 21. The game was witnessed by a large crowd. The defeat of the Boyd Parks was a genuine surprise.

This game is the second for the high school quintette and although the players have not had much time to practice, they played well together.

The high school will rest today, but will meet the Sait Lake Hardware company team tomorrow evening at 6 o'clock in the Y. M. C. A. gymnosium. The high school five played a great game and displayed nuch improvement in every department of the game over that shown in Tuesday's contest with the Lucas five. The passing was good and the good work of the high school guards saved many baskets for the west siders. The baskets shooting of the high school was spectacular.

basket shooting of the high school was spectacular.
Calvin Rawlings, center of the west siders, made a basket from the middle of the floor. It was one of the best shots seen on the association floor and Richardson was well pleased as Rawlings is steadily improving in his long shots. Captain Roy Siddoway also was good in his basket work. He also made a long basket. Rawlings and Siddoway gave their opponents much trouble and after the game. Parker, who is considered the best guard in the league, complimented the high school boys on their great all around playing.

Next to Haymond, probably the best

In the quarter mile there is Bob Flagei, who has been winning the event

FRANK HINKEY WILL COACH ELI ELEVEN

DAYTON, Ohio, Dec. 24.-Frank Him key, famous star of the nineties, will be head coach of the Yale football eleven next fall. This announcement was made next fall. This announcement was made today by Captain Nelson Taibott, who is at alls home here for the Christmas holidays.

Frank Hinkey, who has been appointed head coach of the Yaie footbail team, succeeds Howard Jones, who last season began his work as Yale's first salaried footbail coach under a contract Jones, it is understood, felt obliged to sever his contract in order to accept a incrative business offer.

Hinkey was graduated from Yale in 1895. He played end and footbail experts regard him as one of the best ends that ever wore the blue, rivaling even such latter day stars at Yale as Sheviln, Kilpatrick and Bomelster. For the first time in many years Hinkey assisted in the coaching at Yale field last fall so he is conversant with conditions here. He is known to be an advocate of the open style of play and is a firm believer in the forward pass. It is therefore probable that Yale will show an attack next fall that will almost revolutionize the style of play in vogue here for several seasons.

THINKS TENNIS RULES SHOULD BE ENFORCED

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 24.-Walter Johnson, who was a member of the American tennis team which won the Davis cup competition in England last summer, in discussing the changes in the tennis rules proposed by the English authorities, said last night that he believed thorities, said last night that he believed the rules regarding service and foot faults should be rigidly enforced. He had been taught, he said, to keep both feet on or back of the service line until the ball is struck.

"A man who adheres closely to the back court game rarely has a foot fault called," said Johnson. "There are, however, many men of national reputation who would suffer if the rules already on the statute books were rigidly enforced. Rigid rules will in no way embarraes the man who has a faultless service."
